

Lacey Haines

She truly leads with a heart to serve others. Lacey sits on many boards for nonprofits, serves her community on the ground level, and started her own movement - Lou's Blessings to You.

Lacey has five children and two grandchildren. When she isn't serving her community, you can find her traveling or inspiring others to chase their dreams! She resides in Tennessee with her family.
