

Halle Pouncey

She's a Learning & Development professional. Earning her MSEd from Purdue University, she enhanced her skillset to design impactful learning materials. She's also a children's book series author.

Actively involved in her community, Halle serves as a girl scout troop leader and is a part of the Citizens Match program for Best Buddies. She resides in Indiana with her husband and their fur baby, Pippy.
